- is the first Regional Branch of the International Council on Archives.
- It was established at an inaugural Conference held in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia on 9 July 1968.
- Its purpose was to promote collaboration among the nations in the region in the administration, preservation, conservation and use of archives.
- ten members countries represented in SARBICA: Brunei Darussalam, Cambodia, Indonesia, Malaysia, Myanmar, Philippines, Singapore, Thailand, Vietnam and Laos,

2.1 Objective of SARBICA

- 1) To establish, maintain and strengthen relations between archivists of all countries in the region and between all institutions, professional bodies and organisations which are concerned with the custody, organisation or administration of archives;
- 2) To promote all measures for preservation, protection and defence against all manner of hazards of the archival heritage of the region, and to further the progress of all aspects of administration and preservation of these archives;
- 3) To facilitate the use of archives of the region by making them more widely known and by encouraging greater ease of access;
- 4) To promote, organise and co-ordinate activities in the field of archives in the region;
- 5) To co-operate with other organizations or institution concerned with the documentation of human experience and the use of that documentation for the benefit of mankind;
- 6) To generally carry out the aims and objectives of the International Council on Archives(ICA).

3.0 FIAF-International Federation of Film Archives

International Federation of Film Archives:

- FIAF's official date of birth is generally recognized as 17 June 1938 signed in Paris by its four founder-members – the Cinémathèque française, Germany's Reichsfilmarchiv, the British Film Institute, and the Museum of Modern Art Film Library
- the nature and evolution of the early relationships between these institutions, in order to understand how the idea of an international film archive network emerged, what obstacles came in the way of its establishment, and how the project managed to materialize despite the increasingly hostile international context of the late 1930s
- But for now, FIAF dedicated to the preservation of and access to the world's film heritage
